Turning the Tide on HIV/AIDS: 2012 International AIDS Conference Comes to Cornell

December 7, 2012 – Mann Library, Room 102

Hosted by
The Bronfenbrenner Center for Translational Research and the HIV Risk Reduction and Education Projects

8:45a.m.  Welcome and Refreshments

9:00a.m.  Address by Hillary Clinton, US Secretary of State – Ending the Epidemic: Turning the Tide Together (MOPL01 – 30 minutes)

9:40a.m.  Presentation by Nesha Haniff, Jamaica and University of Michigan, US – Zero New Infections (WESY0401 – 15 minutes)

10:20a.m.  Presentation by Christine Stegling, International HIV/AIDS Alliance, UK – Zero Discrimination (WESY0403 – 15 minutes)

11:00a.m.  Address by Paul Semugoma, Uganda and Global Forum on MSM and HIV – Turning the Tide for MSM and HIV (THPL01 – 25 minutes)

11:45a.m.  Address by Nelly Mugo, Kenyatta National Hospital/ University of Nairobi, Kenya – Implementation Science: Making the New Prevention Revolution Real (TUPL01 – 25 minutes)

12:15  Lunch case-study, *Getting to Zero – Preventing Mother-to-child Transmission in Washington, DC

1:00p.m.  Address by Anthony Fauci, Director, National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, NIH, US – Ending the HIV Epidemic: From Scientific Advances to Public Health Implementation (MOPL01 – 25 minutes)

1:45p.m.  Presentation by Carlos F. Caceres, Director, Institute of Studies in Health, Sexuality and Human Development, Lima, Peru – The State of Research in Identifying, Measuring, and Evaluating Social Determinants of Health and HIV (THBS03 – 15 minutes)

2:15p.m.  Selections from abstract session, Challenges in Scaling-Up Prevention of Mother-to-child Transmission (PMTCT)" (THAC01)

3:30p.m.  Bridging session, Treatment as Prevention: Is It Time for Action? (MOBS02 – 25 minutes)

4:15p.m.  Address by Phil Wilson, Founder, Black AIDS Institute, US – Deciding Moment: Ending the AIDS Epidemic in America Together (MOPL01 – 25 minutes)

Implementation Science focus 11:45-2:15